MISCELLANEOUS LETTER

1. Regarding patent application number, 09/736,351, filed on 15 December 2000, the documents received by Technology Center 2800 on 22 March 2002, appear to the amendment/response to the first office action, dated 30 January 2002.
2. The applicant (who is a pro se) appears to have amended the original six claims as a single claim (pages 10 and 11).
3. The applicant has added three new drawings to the patent application. The examiner is unsure if any additional fees are associated with the submission of new drawings for this patent application.
4. The examiner wants this amendment/response, dated 22 March 2002, to be entered as Amendment A.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Therese Barber', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
